

Free hockey camp for kids aged 5 to 10

For families, and for the teachers and workers who help them.

What your child gets

- ✓ It is free. There is nothing to pay, ever.
- ✓ Full hockey gear to keep. Skates, helmet, pads, gloves, stick and bag. It all goes home with your child.
- ✓ Lunch is free every day.
- ✓ No experience needed. Coaches teach kids who have never skated.

Who can come

Camps are for children aged 5 to 10 who live in Toronto. If you live just outside the city, apply anyway and tell us why; we decide case by case.

Christmas Camp 2026

Camp opens on 15 December 2026 and runs for five days, at arenas across Toronto. We plan to use these four arenas:

Arena (planned)	Address
Leaside Memorial Community Gardens	1073 Millwood Rd, Toronto
Ted Reeve Community Arena	175 Main St, Toronto
North Toronto Memorial Arena	174 Orchard View Blvd, Toronto
Upper Canada College Wilder Arena	200 Lonsdale Rd, Toronto

We confirm each arena and its dates as ice is booked.

How a family applies

For teachers and workers

Are you a teacher, social worker or settlement worker? You can refer a family.

Ask the family first. With their permission, email andrew.adair@ucc.on.ca.

Your privacy. We only use your information to organise the camp. We never share it or sell it.

Free camps at every school break: Christmas, March Break and summer.
